ART IS THEFT

SCRIPT

Creativity...

Creativity takes courage.

Every act of creation is, first of all, an act of destruction. A destruction and reconstruction of one self, to find our inner artist child that we lost as we grew up.

Do not seek: find the idea; a point of departure, and no more. Ideas and emotions come from all over the place: from the sky, from the earth, from a scrap of paper, from a passing shape, from a spider's web.

Great things are done by a series of small things brought together.

Steal from around you; it's not where you take things from, it's where you take them to.

Those who do not want to imitate produce nothing.

It is not the new ideas, but the obsession with the ideas that what has already been said is still not enough.

But steal the soul, and make it your own.

So, at the very end, what you are will come out as your true and unique creation.

Good artists copy; great artists steal.
